

OGACC Code of Conduct

The Ocean Grove Area Chamber of Commerce's Code of Conduct is in place to ensure the safety, wellbeing, and positive experience of all event participants. Vendors are expected to treat customers, staff, volunteers, business owners, and law enforcement with courtesy and respect. The OGACC is committed to hosting events that foster a friendly, safe, and successful environment for everyone involved.

As a vendor participating in any OGACC event, I agree to:

- Respect and comply with all rules and policies established by the OGACC
- Treat all customers, staff, volunteers, and participants with professionalism and courtesy. Aggressive, disrespectful, or inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated
- Refrain from deceiving or exploiting customers, event coordinators, staff, business owners, or volunteers
- Adhere to all guidelines regarding permitted and prohibited items for sale, including any items that are restricted or illegal
- Respect the event space by removing all merchandise, debris, and trash prior to departure. Vehicles are not permitted on event greens, grass, sidewalks, or any areas where vehicle access is not normally allowed
- Follow all loading and unloading procedures, as well as designated setup and breakdown timeframes

As a vendor for OGACC events, I also agree that items offered for sale must be:

- (Craft Shows) Completely handmade by the applying vendor, within a 5% allowance
- Family-friendly. Prohibited items include, but are not limited to, those that are pornographic, weapons, illegal substances, fireworks, politically themed items, racist or discriminatory materials, vulgar language, or items deemed unsafe

Compliance with all components of the OGACC Code of Conduct is required. Failure to adhere to these standards may result in the revocation of vendor privileges for all OGACC shows and markets. No refunds will be issued in the event of removal due to non-compliance.
